

Mandatory Chula Vista Green Building Standards?

The city of Chula Vista is proposing a mandatory Green Building Program for new development that would require new development to exceed current Title 24 Energy Standards. A subcommittee of the City Council recently recommended that new development be required to exceed Title 24 by 20%, an increase from the previous direction of the City Council of 15%.

The BIA is opposed to mandatory requirements to exceed California energy and green building codes.

Learn more at http://www.ci.chula-vista.ca.us/City_Services/Development_Services/Planning_Building/SustainabilityCenter/GrBuildStnd/CCWGMeasure/default.asp

