

Who is Councilmember Todd Gloria working for?

The Union-Tribune has said:

Gloria owes his [council] seat “to union financial backing,” and that he is “not likely to cross” his union backers on “any substantive issue.”

Now Councilmember Gloria is pushing a union-backed bill that will essentially ban larger retail stores that sell groceries and pharmacy items – restricting your shopping choices! And he’s doing it without full analysis or review!

Planning Commissioners recently objected to Councilman Gloria going through express checkout without full analysis or review by appropriate city agencies.

Commissioner Tim Golba said it “deviates from the normal process,” while Commissioner Robert Griswold called these actions “disrespectful,” “ill-advised” and “objectionable.”
