

County Automatic Permit Extensions

Various cities around the county have recently passed or implemented automatic local permit extensions, including Carlsbad, San Diego, Oceanside, and Encinitas. These extensions are in tandem with the 2-year automatic extension the state granted to approved Tentative Maps. These automatic extensions serve as a key economic stimulus measure for the construction industry by protecting entitlements and enabling the industry to return when market conditions are better.

