

County General Plan Update

The county of San Diego is moving forward with its General Plan Update with the release of their second draft and a Draft Environmental Impact Report for the project.

The BIA and industry stakeholders have significant concerns with the proposed plan, including the lack of assurances for housing and new infrastructure, the dramatic downzoning in rural areas, and the conflicts the plan may have with state housing and land use laws.

Learn more at <http://www.sdcounty.ca.gov/dplu/gpupdate/index.html>

