Summary:

The Building Industry Association (BIA) of San Diego exists to represent the many companies that plan, design and build the many places where San Diegans live, work and play. With nearly 800 company members and all of their thousands of employees, the BIA is a major voice supporting the efforts to build all types of residential and commercial projects. The BIA marshals the collective influence of those who are engaged in the building industry to address issues that impact the development community in San Diego County.

Budget Committee Focuses on Planning Department Spending Plan

By Matt Adams
The 2018 Fiscal Year takes center stage at San Diego City Hall this week. The Budget Committee hearing looks into the proposed Planning Department Budget and the goals for the next fiscal year. The plan looks to fund seven community plan updates with Midway and Old Town scheduled for completion in 2018. It also seeks to add two staff positions in response to increased workload.
